Calm down all you Bieb fans, it was just a small fire..... In his moms hair!! WTH?

Apparently Justin's mom Patte Mallette was celebrating her 35th Birthday Saturday at her son's concert in Berlin. Beiber was performing and called his mom on stage to present her with a birthday cake. Studio Mama (Her twitter name) leaned over to blow out the candles when her hair got too close and caught flames. Bieber immediately came to moms rescue and started to pat her hair putting out the flame. After the incident Bieber tweeted about the incident, stating "I saved her" Lol.....
