In divorce documents posted on TMZ.com, Kardashian cites "irreconcilable differences" as her reason for ending the marriage. Kardashian, 31, and Humphries, 26, married on August 20. Their wedding cost a reported $20 million and garnered a multi-episode television special on E! Im sorry BUT Kim K requested quite a few extravagagant gifts.....Is she going to return them? What about the millions of dolars given to her for wedding? What about the millions paid by E for the show? She obviously had doubts...she signed a pre-nup!! This seems so selfish I feel sorry for Kris...he was so used!!

SHAME ON YOU KIM!!!!
