And in other Basketball Wives news

How the hell does Kenya Bell make 300,000 plus per season??!! I mean she hasn't even thrown a bottle or called anybody a bish yet!! However and whatever her Kicked out of the NBA league and soon to be ex hubby "Charlie Bell" wants some of the pie. According to recent reports Charlie Bell filed for spousal support. I guess he figures she couldn't be a Basketball Wife without him, and he's obviously not making too good playing ball over seas.

Sidenote: Aye Charlie, Kenya is a little bit crazy (Just ask her) you better let this one go dawg or Kenya might end up on "Snapped" next season!!
