Terrence J and Rocsi Farewell

Terrence J and Rocsi say their official goodbye to 106 & Park Well it finally came out of their mouths instead of the rumors that have been circulating. After 7 years on the show Terrence and Rocsi are leaving 106 and Park. The two have different projects in mind that they would like to pursue. Terrence J has an acting career that is sure to take off after his performance in "Think Like a Man," and Rocsi has reportedly moved to LA to pursue an acting career as well (she was recently spotted with Eddie Murphy in LA). Stay tuned for the departure celebration on BET coming soon.....

A statement from Terrence J

We have decided together that we will soon be leaving '106 and Park' as your hosts. This by no stretch of the imagination was an easy decision. But it's the right one. It's come after a lot of prayer, a lot of thought, and a lot of consideration.

A statement from Rocsi

We can't even express how amazing these seven years have been and how life changing they've been. We appreciate you guys so much.

A statement from BET President of Programming Stephen Hill “Today, after seven exciting years, 106 & Park hosts Terrence J and Rocsi announced that they will be leaving the show. It is no secret that there are a number of opportunities coming their way and we're fortunate that they've been with 106 & Park for so long. They will be staying on the show for a while, so that we can have a “victory lap” — a celebration of their years at the helm of 106 & Park — before their departure. Terrence J and Rocsi are destined for great success and we at BET Networks will always take pride in being their original home — and be a place where I hope they'll always feel welcome.”
