When a man supports you in public, when a man is seen with you more than once, it's safe to say "Y'all Go Together." Drake was recently spotted in the stands for Serena's loss at the US Open, now the rapper has been spotted in NYC at Serena's HSN Signature Statement Collection Fashion Show..... Did I mention that he sat next to Anna Wintour, and he was clapping?! Serena's Signature Statement is said to be comfortable, and affordable. The fashion was presented down the runway with Drake's music playing. We're definitely gonna keep our eyes locked on this hot duo.
