The late singer's mother Diane Haughton and brother Rashad Haughton have created with perfume creator Xyrena a tribute fragrance. The fragrance is said to be a unisex scent with hints of vanilla and lavender. Pre order for the fragrance went on sale today (September 15, 2015) at Xyrena.com and will hit stores in late October. 5% of the proceeds will go to the Aaliyah Memorial Fund.
