I am obsessed with this chick right now. She is just popping up everywhere!! Rumors have been swirling that The Perfect Guy star and rapper French Montana are must than just friends. After Sanaa's interview on Big Boy's Morning Show I'm leaning towards the rumors. When the star was asked about French Montana she laughed (almost like she was blushing) then said "Let's just put it this way, I am dating."

That's a yes in a bloggers world. Check out the interview and comment what you think.
