Miami Dolphins Brandon Marshall Stabbed by Wife

The Blind Man saw it all again!! Brandon Marshall has been listed in critical condition as a result of being stabbed by his wife. Although there are no complete details on what lead to this unfortunate situation, Marshall told the police that his injuries were a result of an accident. The Marshall's are no stranger to domestic violence. In March 2009 Brandon and his then fiance Michi Leshase Nagomi-Campbell were both arrested when the police arrived to witness the couple fighting outside. The charges were dropped when they decided not to press charges against each other, the couple were married a year later. Mrs. Marshall has admitted to the stabbing claiming "self defense" and is being held on 75,000 bond.

UPDATE: The athlete's injuries aren't "life-threatening" according to a NFL.com, and he may be released from the hospital as early as this afternoon. Still, Marshall will need 2-3 weeks to recover from his injuries.
